Director's Message

I hope that this message finds everybody well and sane.

I want to collectively reach out to everybody to maintain connection, but also to start a conversation about what is happening in our world.

First off, continue to wash your hands, don't cough on each other, and practice some self care every day.

Make time to do something that makes you and anybody else that happens to be in your sphere happy.

That said, at the time of this writing it is very up in the air when we will be able to again gather around our Buicks.

May looks like a no go at this time.... and June, well that's still to be determined.

In the meantime, let's all make an effort to stay connected and look forward to the day that we get together as a group!

Happy Buicking

2020 Director – Jay Emery

DATE to remember 2020

May – June - Kick off Pink Flamingo Dinner party (first hosts – Kahnberg's) –

- This waits for this shelter in place to pass and we feel comfortable moving about... (PS: I do have the Pink Flamingo on my back porch ☺)

May 15-17- American Graffiti – Cancelled for 2020

June 12 – Peggy Sue – Postponed – Reschedule possibly early September - TBD

June 21 – Fathers Day at Juilliard Park

In front of the Windsor Oliver's there are two forties era flatbeds...one a Ford and the other a Chevy.

Someone with a sense of humor put masks on them....

Shared by Terry Eggleston – yes folks – he's still around ☺

History repeats itself. Came across this poem written in 1869, reprinted during 1919 Pandemic.

This is Timeless....

And people stayed at home
And read books
And listened
And they rested
And did exercises
And made art and played
And learned new ways of being
And stopped and listened
More deeply
Someone meditated, someone prayed
Someone met their shadow
And people began to think differently
And people healed.
And in the absence of people who
Lived in ignorant ways
Dangerous, meaningless and heartless,
The earth also began to heal
And when the danger ended and
People found themselves
They grieved for the dead
And made new choices
And dreamed of new visions
And created new ways of living
And completely healed the earth
Just as they were healed.
