Director's Message

As I sit writing this on a very warm almost summer day, I catch a glimpse of almost normalcy. But just as it's not really yet summer, things in our world are not really normal.

I have to make an assumption that like me, every one of you must be craving some version of how life was just a few short months ago. With that said, let's try to create some normalcy—if even for a moment.

Reach out and maintain connections with friends and loved ones; have dinner from a favorite restaurant, even if it's take-out; and last, take your Buick out for a drive.

Happy Buicking

2020 Director – Jay Emery

THE BUICK CLUB OF THE REDWOODS
MAY 13th, 2020 MEETING

The May 13, 2020 Buick Club of the Redwoods business meeting was cancelled due to Shelter-In-Place mandated orders caused by the outbreak of Covid-19

Submitted by Joan Costello
Secretary

From Treasurer – Rich Kahnberg:

Treasurer report for the month of May:

Membership: Club Membership remains at 27.

Checking: The only checking activity was a deposit of $26.00 on May 18th. This was from the March Raffle that I forgot to deposit.

If we have a meeting on June 10th, I will be making a motion for the club to send a donation in Tom Cropp's memory to the Phoenix Hospice of Willits. If we do not have a meeting, I will send an email message to all club members asking for approval to do so.

Stay healthy – looking forward to when we can start getting together again!

Best: Rich

Hope everyone is doing well, as we continue our Shelter in place efforts across California and the country.

Thank you to all members who are sharing jokes, history lessons, car stuff and just stuff via email. Check out your Inbox, delete box or junk box to find these emails

We have had some really interesting stuff.

THE RUSTING BEAUTIES OF TUBBS LANE

by Terry Eggleston
(Yep, I'm still here)

I was cruising around, just getting out of the house, when I came upon some eye candy for lovers of old stuff. I'm sure you've all driven by the deli/liquor store at the corner of Tubbs Lane and Highway 128 just west of Calistoga. With nothing else to do, I drove around the back and found these jewels. Now, I can't seem to take pictures of old cars and other old stuff without writing an article (conditioned response, I suspect), and figuring April would probably want anything for the newsletter, I put this together.

Less text and more pictures is my mantra, so here goes! Stay safe and healthy!
